FOSTERING STUDENT-LED IEPS

DECEMBER 8, 2021 | 4 PM TO 5 PM, VIA ZOOM

Eastern Standard Time*

Student leadership during the IEP process is essential! Join us for an engaging session that will focus on the components of a student-led IEP and identify available resources and strategies that can support implementation.

Enjoy this opportunity to meaningfully connect with fellow professionals and explore how you can help your learners increase important self-determination skills that will make student-led IEPs a reality.

Kendal Swartzentruber & Daniel Biegun, from the Virginia Department of Education's I'm Determined Project, will facilitate an interactive session featuring stories and experiences from a panel of IMD Youth Leaders.

Brandon Stees is an enthusiastic leader from Harrisonburg, VA. He has interest in history, public speaking, and playing his euphonium. Brandon currently attends Blue Ridge Community College and assists in several courses at James Madison University where he advocates for inclusion and greater understanding of self-determination.

Chloe Sutterfield is a veteran IMD Youth Leader from Aylett, Virginia. She is presently a journalism major at Virginia Commonwealth University. Chloe is a musician, actress, public speaker, published author, and athlete.
